

Mr. Mark Cameron - Regional Director, South Malaysia and Singapore, and Country Manager Singapore, Scania

"With more than 25 years of experience in engineering, industrial equipment and the heavy commercial vehicle industry, Mark Cameron holds an honours degree in engineering and an MBA. He has lived and worked in Australia, Sweden, Tanzania and Singapore.

He has a broad range of business experience from engineering and University lecturing to marketing, customer engagement, and managerial experience to MD level. He has worked abroad with Scania in a variety of managerial roles for the last ten years and is currently the Regional Director for Scania South Malaysia and Singapore, Country Manager for Scania Singapore.

He is the current Chairman of the Commercial Vehicles committee of the Singapore European Chamber of Commerce and holds a committee position on the Swedish Business Association of Singapore."