

Yi-Chen, Investment Professional, Renewable Energy, Infrastructure, Sustainability, ING Sustainable Finance APAC

Yi-Chen joined ING Sustainable Finance APAC team in 2017 and have been actively contributing in several landmark transactions in the region, including: China Development Bank's first international green bond, Macquarie Group's first green loan aligned with LMA and APLMA's Green Loan Principles, the first green bond aligned with International Capital Markets Association (ICMA) Green Bond Principles and ASEAN Green Bond Standards for Sindicatum guaranteed by Guarantco, the first sustainability performance-linked syndicated facility in Asia with Olam, Singapore's first syndicated secured green loan with Frasers Property.

Prior to ING, Yi-Chen had gained extensive experience in project finance and private equity particularly focusing on pan-Asian infrastructure and renewable energy sectors.